"NAPOLEON 107" SHOT.

The Old Horse Had Been Suffering from Spinal Meningitis.

Inspector Conlin, of the Third District, received a report this morning from Capt. Washburn, of the Thirty-fifth Precinct, detailing the news of the death of "Napoleon 107," at the hands of Roundman Weise.

"Napoleon 107" was an old and valued horse belonging to the mounted squad. Yesterday he showed symptoms of spinal meningitis, and last night he gave out under Patrolman O'Connell, while on post. Sergeants John Hatton and Richard Coffey and Roundman Weise held a consultation, which resulted in Weise being selected to put "Napoleon 107" out of his misery.

Inspector Conlin says that spinal meningitis is a new terror to the horses of the Department. "But we are fortunate," added the Inspector, "for out of our 120 horses, we only lose about one a year."

Boy Assaulted by an Italian.

Vincenzo Fratella, an evil-looking Italian, twenty-five years old, of 325 East Eleventh street, was held in $500 bail for examination in the Tombs Police Court this morning on the charge of assaulting an eleven-year-old boy named Luigi Portino, who lives with his parents at 294 West Street. The boy was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital for treatment.

LOST WITH FOURTEEN MEN.

The Australian Steamer Alert Goes Down in a Gale.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—Sydney advices say that the iron steamer Alert, while on her voyage from Port Albert to Melbourne recently sank, during a terrible gale, and of the fifteen men aboard but one managed to reach land and tell the story of the disaster.

When the steamer rounded Cape Sehanck, a southerly gale was blowing with hurricane violence, an enormous green sea broke on board, and as the steamer rolled the sea filled the decks flush with the rails, carrying off everything movable, and passed down the hatches and skylights in the vessel. The fires in the engine-room were put out at once.

Fatally Burned by Oil.

PATCHOGUE, L. I., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Jane Bell, sixty years old, was horribly burned yesterday morning while lighting a fire with oil. She has been totally blind for a number of years.
